Dear Mrs.,

Please find attached my presentation for next week's meeting. I was waiting for input from Anas on my draft version which I sent him last week but which I have not received yet. Valentijn van der Meijden has submitted the corporate Fox-IT presentation which should be considered part of this presentation.

With respect to the meeting itself it appears that we will not have our visa on time. Apparently the visa are due now for Sunday but with the normal delay at the Embassy this will not be in time to make the departure time of our flights. So it is not sure that we will be able to attend the scheduled meeting.

Regards,
Dr. Hans Henseler
